

OBSERVATIONS

- Ducks and Coots	on the water	winter and spring
- Redwinged Blackbirds	in the tules	winter and spring
- Finches and Warblers	in the willows	fall and spring
- Meadowlarks and Shrikes	in the upland	winter and spring
- Hawks	in the eucalyptus	fall and winter
- Frogs	by the water	spring and summer
- Butterflies	in the upland	spring and summer
- Dragonflies	by the water	spring and summer
- Grasshoppers	in the upland	spring and summer

WETLAND ZONES

Elevation Above Sea Level	Description	Characteristic Plants
76.0 feet	Floods during some years, remains flooded briefly, covers 17 acres	Curly Dock
75.5 feet	Floods most years, remains flooded for 1 to 4 months, covers 11.5 acres	Umbrella Sedge
75.0 feet	Floods regularly with ankle-deep water, remains flooded for 2 to 5 months, covers 9 acres	Spike Rush Water Plantain
74.0 feet	Floods with knee-deep water, remains flooded for 4 to 7 months, covers 4 acres	Bulrush
73.0 feet	Floods with waist-deep water, remains flooded for 5 to 9 months, covers 2 acres	Cattail
72.5 feet		Tule

LEGEND

Upland	TU Tule	AW Arroyo Willow	EU Eucalyptus
Wetland	MF Mule Fat	BW Black Willow	SY Sycamore
	CT Cattail	RW Red Willow	OA Oak
VP Vernal Pool	BR Bulrush	CW Cottonwood	TR Other Trees
View Point	Trail	Dirt Road	Fence

Map provided by Friends of Madrona Marsh through a grant from Bank of America